THE KITCHEN TABLE

Oilcloth is not the ideal covering for the kitchen table unless it is strictly an eating table. Oilcloth sticks to it, and it spots and mars most easily. Much better is to use a plain marble or porcelain or glass top, which will give years of permanent service and which can be kept in a most sanitary condition.

Doings of the McDuffs

the whole of the front and at an early hour had captured the important village of Pommerell forest and Romerles. On the extreme right there was strong resistance at the fortified farm of Gimbremont and the railway nearby but at both places the enemy's defense was quickly overcome.

"Left of the center the village of Beaurain, which was held by the enemy with great tenacity was stormed by the English with the assistance of tanks.

"On the left other English troops crossed the Harpines river at an early stage of the advance and captured Vertain.

"During the morning we pressed on over the whole of the front, carrying the enemy's positions to a depth of over three miles, driving him from many strongly defended villages, farms, woods and other localities organized for resistance.

"The English 25th division had hard fighting in the Bois Levee but progressed through the wood. East county troops, advancing to a depth of three and a half miles captured Bouse (Bousies?).

"The Anglo-Scottish troops secured crossings of the Harpines at the Vendegies wood and captured Vendegies village. English and New Zealanders operating on their left reached the outskirts of Neuville and established themselves on the high ground north-west of the village.

"Further north the village of Es-carmain was captured.

"In these highly successful operations several thousand prisoners and many guns were captured by our troops, whose advance is continuing on the whole of the front."
